

The citizens of Lockport, without distinction of party, ask for the resignation of John Bowman, who, without a single qualification for the office, was appointed Canal Commissioner. He is a slow, slipshod sort of a man, without a spark of energy, enterprise or intelligence, so necessary in such a situation. But is one of the dull tools with which the Albany Regency work. He once offered a Resolution prepared by A. C. Flagg, ostracizing Gov. CLINTON as President of the Canal Board. For this he was first made a Canal Collector and then Canal Commissioner. He is a clog to the work, and we do not wonder that the people want to get rid of him.—Alb. Jou.

Correspondence of the Albany Argus.
LEWISTON, Aug. 15, 1838.
It may be a matter of interest to your readers to be informed of the fate of the sixteen state convicts, sentenced to be executed on the 25th.

Three of them, Chandler, Wait and McLeod, are to be executed on the 25th, agreeably to their sentence.
Eight others, including Miller and the other Americans, to be transported to some one of the British Colonies for life. Three others, to the penitentiary for three years.

The case of the remaining convict, Waggoner, has not been decided; great efforts have been made by his friends to procure his banishment to the states.

The trial of Beamer, who led a body of lancers at the affair of the Short Hills, comes on to-day or to-morrow; and the general belief is that he will be convicted and sentenced to be executed.

Mr. Adams, on a late visit to Hingham, was received by several hundred ladies, who prepared an entertainment for him in its vicinity. After being introduced to the company he made a short speech, which concluded thus: "He had found in the course of his life, that it was an easy matter to address two hundred and forty men, but it had been to him a sufficiently arduous task to address successfully one woman." Music and dancing closed the festivities of the occasion; and that being the termination of the affair, we look upon the whole as a village fete, and can pardon its political bearing for the sake of its joyous conclusion.

DISAPPEARANCE.—A little girl about 9 years of age was seen yesterday passing through Chatham street with a small coffin in her hand, which was mostly covered by a green veil. On being asked what it contained, she replied that it was a "dead baby," and that her father, who was also the father of the dead child, had compelled her to bring it all the way from Suffolk street to the Alms House, in the hot sun. The father is himself a stout healthy man.—N. Y. Express.

HOW THE SYSTEM WORKS.—The Troy (Miami Co.) Post office, an Administration Sub Treasury, was robbed of $700 in specie on Thursday night last, and afterwards set on fire. The letters and papers were saved, though the building was consumed. The Sub Treasurer of this robbed and burnt Depository is the loco loco candidate for the Legislature in Miami county. His claims to the suffrages of his party are no longer equivocal.—Dayton Journal.

SKIRMISH.—Prentice of the Louisville Journal, and free Tom Moore recently had a rencontre at Harrodsburg Springs. They discharged pistols, Moore into the ground, Prentice into a tree top. No harm done. Prentice hitbest with a quill.—Clev. Her.

TROOPS.—The Government steamer Milwaukee is lying in this port, waiting the arrival of the troops from the Cherokee country. They are expected by Canal soon. Part will go to Ft. Gratiot, and the remainder below—some 400 in all are en route.—Clev. Her.

The city of Buffalo, we were told by long residents, is unusually healthy, for this season of the year. The fine rains of Wednesday night and yesterday morning, followed as they have been by a cool, bracing air, are excellent grounds for the hope that the city may continue equally healthy through the season.—Buff. Rep.

Joseph D. Adams, late cashier of the Fulton Bank, in this city, appeared yesterday before the Municipal Court to answer to seven indictments for defrauding that institution, on which he was arraigned. He gave bail in $23,000 for his appearance at trial next term.—Boston Journal.

A silk company in Connecticut, which has only been in operation two and a half years, is stated to have divided $100 on each share, where but $25 was paid in.

THE NUPTIALS CONSUMMATED.—The Bank of the United States of Pennsylvania, and the Treasury Department of the United States united.

The Treasury Department is now issuing drafts on the "Bank of the United States of Pennsylvania." We have seen them. And this too, before that bank has resumed specie payments! What shall we see next? Nicholas Biddle, the Financial Agent of Levi Woodbury, Secretary of the Treasury. Such is the fact, and it cannot be gainsayed. The "Bankrupt institution" of Mr. Biddle, the fiscal agent of the Government! An institution that but two or three weeks ago, it was asserted in the official organs, would not, or could not resume specie payments. Oh! the monster! the cotton-bales of the South. The money king! the purchaser of men and votes like cattle in the market! The seducer of members of Congress from their constituents! the controller of the public press! the most corrupt engine that ever was established amid a free people! These are a few of the epithets and appellations that have been cast upon Mr. Biddle's bank by those and their friends who have no entered into a treaty of amity, whether defensive and offensive or not, we do not know.

What will the Democracy say to this! And what can those, their servants, who have consummated the nuptials say in explanation, but that it is a fair business transaction?

Where is your Sub-Treasury—your separation from all banks—your divorce now? Abandoned! ignominiously abandoned! After having kept the country agitated with them for a year, and brought ruin upon thousands of good honest citizens, in attempting to force them upon the country!—Madisonian.

THE NAVY.—Indignation on account of the Globes atrocious attack upon the Navy is spreading far and wide, and is by no means confined to the opponents of the administration. Every body condemns it. Mr. Paulding's refusal to disavow the authorship of the libellous article is ruining him with the nation. It is impossible that, with such an imputation resting upon him, he can remain at the head of the department. The entire interests of the navy must be sacrificed, by the existence, in the head of it, of such feelings towards the officers as Mr. Paulding's manifesto exhibits.—Baltimore Chronicle.

FIRE AT BANGOR.—A letter from the office of the Bangor Whig, dated Sunday evening, states that a destructive fire had broken out there on that morning, which had consumed several buildings and a considerable quantity of valuable property. The fire originated in a building in Wall street, occupied by N. Johnson, cooper-smith, and had gained so much headway before being discovered, that the efforts of the fire department to extinguish the flames, were for some time unavailing, and the five frame houses adjoining Wall street, three tenements on Main street, known as the Arcade Building, and some two or three other houses, were consumed before the fire was got under.

LOSS OF LIFE AT THE SAGHARBOR FIRE.—In our last paper, we gave an account of the great fire at Sag Harbor, with the probable loss of life. Later accounts from the papers published at that place, state that the body of Wm. F. Edridge, aged 18, was taken from under the ruins and buried next day. Henry Westerdal, aged 18, who jumped from the third story window of Kings building, died the same morning. James Pettit, who also jumped from a second story building, is doing well; the colored woman who jumped from the same window that Westerdal did, is also doing well.—Long Island Star.

The Alexandria Gazette states that Com. Hull would take the command of the U. S. Frigate Constitution, and proceed to the Mediterranean.

The troops stationed at Buffalo, have been ordered to Sacketts Harbor.

HOTEL TO LET.
TO RENT and immediate possession given, the new and commodious MIAMI Hotel, situated in the lower ward of Maumee City. This house is at the corner of Detroit street and Michigan avenue, a few rods only from the main steamboat landing, and close by the Ferry, at which the travel between Maumee and the eastern states crosses the Maumee river.
This Hotel is of three stories, with basement rooms, fronting eighty feet on Detroit street, and ninety feet on the avenue, and its position on the bank of the river, gives it a conspicuous and pleasant appearance. Several steamboats from Buffalo, and other lake ports, every day arrive at and depart from this point. For its command of respectable business both in summer and winter, there is probably no hotel better situated than this.
To a good tenant who would furnish it respectably, it would be let for a term of years at a moderate rent. In the same Building there is a large and well finished store, also to be rented. It is one of the best situations for a large variety Store adapted to country trade in this region.
